The following Bill was introduced in Lok Sabha on 21st November, 1996:—

BILL No. 102 OF 1996

A Bill further to amend the Delhi Development Act, 1957.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Forty-seventh Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Delhi Development (Amendment) Act, 1996.

Short title.

2. Throughout the Delhi Development Act, 1957 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act),—

Substitution of references.

(a) for the words "Union territory of Delhi", wherever they occur, the words "National Capital Territory of Delhi" shall be substituted;

(b) for the word "Administrator", wherever it occurs, the words "Lieutenant Governor" shall be substituted.

3. In section 3 of the principal Act, in sub-section (3), for clause (f), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

Amendment of section 3.

"(f) three representatives of the Legislative Assembly of the National Capital Territory of Delhi to be elected by means of a single transferable vote by the members of the Legislative Assembly from among themselves of which two shall be from among the ruling party and one from the party in opposition to the Government :

Provided that no member of the Council of Ministers for the Government of National Capital Territory of Delhi shall be eligible to be elected to the Authority.

Explanation. — For the purposes of this clause, "ruling party" and "party in opposition to the Government" shall mean the ruling party and the party in opposition to the Government recognised as such by the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly of the National Capital Territory of Delhi;"

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Delhi Development Authority was set up under the Delhi Development Act, 1957 with the object of promoting and securing the development of Delhi according to plan. Three representatives of the Metropolitan Council of Delhi were represented in the Authority under sub-section (3) (f) of section 3 of the Act. Since the Metropolitan Council stands abolished and the Legislative Assembly has been constituted for the National Capital Territory of Delhi, there has been no representation of the elected body of Delhi in the Authority. In order to ensure effective deliberations and democratic functioning of the Delhi Development Authority, it has become necessary to provide for three representatives of the Legislative Assembly of the National Capital Territory of Delhi, as members of the Delhi Development Authority.

2. The Bill seeks to achieve the aforesaid object.
